

Jason Hallett
10 Hamilton Court
East Sandwich, Ma 02537
774.212.2285
jayd.hallett@gmail.com

QUALIFICATIONS

- Excellent oral communication skills with community members, public officials, patients and co-workers. Able to give directions concisely and specifically.
- Ability to perform basic life support / resuscitation at accidents, medical emergencies, and disasters to include the provision of emergency medical care.
- Strong scene management skills specifically when working in a paramedic – basic staffing configuration
- Highly adept in written communication skills, including but not limited to the gathering of information for thorough patient care reports.
- Proficiency in the operation and utilization of various emergency equipment to include paramedic basic interface training and interfacility transfer equipment.
- Confidence to exercise independent judgment and leadership when called upon in an emergency situation.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Riverview School, East Sandwich, MA

May of 2005 to present time

Residential Dormitory Supervisor

- Developed and implemented dormitory and individual student routines and activities emphasizing structure, adolescent normalization, and the development of independent living and social skills.
- Established and maintained effective, consistent, timely, meaningful, and respectful communication with the parents of assigned students, and any other adults/professionals involved in the welfare of the students.
- Maintain communication and status reports to parents with regards to their child's progress and develop individual education plans pertinent to the student's development and meeting their specific special needs.
- Completed all required documentation in a clear, concise, professional and timely manner including but not limited to: quarterly reports, incident/accident reports, telephone contact reports, communication logs, and all weekly reporting requirements related to individualized student education plans.
- Across all settings, provided the emotional support, safety, and physical care as needed to students experiencing seizure activity or requiring first aid, and provide non-violent crisis prevention and intervention for emotionally/behaviorally acting out students consistent with related training.
- Development and implementation of an emergency response plan to include the provision of first responder care and intervention during a medical emergency 24/7.
- Training Coordinator for all staff in CPR, AED and emergency first aid
- Enhance team building skills across all spectrums of the school faculty through leadership meetings and project planning.

Tri-Town Ambulance Squad, West Tisbury, MA

May 2011 to present time

Emergency Medical Technician-Basic

- Emergency Medical Technician-Basic Responding to emergency calls to provide efficient and immediate care to the critically ill and injured, and safe transport of the patient to a medical facility.
- Reassured patients and bystanders by working in a confident, efficient manner.
- Complied with all EMS regulations regarding patient care and EMT certification.
- Report verbally and in writing the observation and emergency medical care of all patients in my care to the receiving facility staff for purposes of records and diagnostics
- Ensure that the ambulance is properly stocked, clean, and kept in a neat orderly condition, in accordance with local, state and federal regulations.
- Maintain Paramedic- Basic interface training and skill set to allow for efficient assistance when working with a paramedic in the 911 emergency setting
- Maintain interfacility transfer knowledge for the provision of safe transport and care of patients who require a higher level of care between one hospital to another.

Tisbury EMS Squad Tisbury, Ma

May 2011 to Present

- Emergency Medical Technician-Basic responding to emergency calls to provide efficient and immediate care to the critically ill and injured, and safe transport of the patient to a medical facility.
- Emergency response to mutual aid requests for the city of Boston and its surrounding communities
- Provide immediate ambulance transport to the Boston Medical Center and all its surrounding campus'

Lifeline Ambulance Service, Woburn, MA

September 2008 to May 2011

- Emergency Medical Technician-Basic responding to emergency calls to provide efficient and immediate care to the critically ill and injured, and safe transport of the patient to a medical facility.
- Emergency response to mutual aid requests for the city of Boston and its surrounding communities
- Provide immediate ambulance transport to the Boston Medical Center and all its surrounding campus'

EDUCATION

EMTS Inc. Paramedic Program

Location Martha's Vineyard, Oak Bluffs, Ma

Starting – September 13, 2011

American Red Cross Certified Lifeguard

Hyannis YMCA, Hyannis, Ma

June 2009

American Heart Association

Certified CPR/AED/First Aid Instructor

Safety Trainers, Auburn, Ma

March 2011

NAEMT Pre-hospital Trauma Life Support Certification Program

Mercy Medical Center, Springfield, MA

March 2008

Intermittent Reserve Police Academy Trained

Plymouth, Ma Training Center Plymouth County Sherriff's Dept.

June 2009

National Incident Management Certification

Reserve Police Academy Plymouth, Ma

June 2009

Incident Command Systems Certification

Reserve Police Academy Plymouth, Ma

June 2009

Emergency Medical Technician Certification Program-Basic

Lifeline Ambulance Service, Woburn, MA

August 2007

Huntingdon College, Montgomery, AL

Bachelor of Arts

Concentration: Psychology, Human Services

December 2005

Honors:

- The author of an undergraduate research study titled Prior Exposure to Media Violence: and it's Effects on Aggressive Behaviors and Attitudes among College Students. Invited to present at the Mid-South Psychology Conference in Memphis, TN (Feb 2005)
- Currently the First Aide/CPR and AED Training Coordinator for the Riverview School